Result by Wards.

In Madison Ward, in which probably the hottest fight was made, the winners are Messrs, Fullen, Pollock, Jones, Atkinson and Moore, in that order Atkinson and Moore, in that order Tress defeated were Messrs, Brike, Cease, Hobson, Patram and Read. It was remarked that Mr. Moore, a rast dant of South Richmond and a former member of the Manchester City Council, won his fight in that part of the ward north of the river. His collegate, Mr. Patram, won over him in every precinct on the south side, but relied only a small vote away from home. Mr. Hobson, who ran sixth to defeat, is the oldest member of the City Council in point of service, having represented Madison Ward continuously for eighteen years.

In Lee Ward the winners stood in the following order: Ratcliffe, Butler, Pollord Board!

the following order: Ratcliffe, Butler, Pollard, Powell, Vonderlehr, Mr. Pollard is a new member of the Council, being a brother of Councilman H. R. Pollard, Jr., who did not offer for re-election, and a sen of City Attorney Pollard.

Pollard.

The other three new men in this ward, Messrs, Miner, Street and Glazebrook, contested for bottom position.

Batkins's Defeat a Surprise.

The surprise of the election in Lee was the defeat of Mr. Batkins, long a member of the Council, and chairman of the Committee on Grounds and Buildings, who ran twenty-six votes behind Mr. Vonderlehr. Experienced politicians statigh that the eleventh-hour attack of Mr. Venderlehr by distribution of a handbill alleging improper relations with a street car company had elected him.

Although the meeting, which it was alleged Mr. Vonderlehr did not attend, and so broke the quorum, happened nearly a week ago, the circular was not sent out until the might before the primary, giving the candidate no opportunity for reply. His denial was prompt, however, and was sustained by a signed statement from the attorney with whom it was alleged he had hag correspondence.

had had correspondence.

Blake-Paller Fight.

In Clay Ward the Blake-Paller aght overshadowed others. Mr. Puller complained before the Clay Ward Actives that the "organization" was knifing him, but it became known last vight that some of the best known politicians in the ward were his active supporters. He led over Mr. Blake by 153 votes. Mr. Blake is now a member of the Common Council, his term expiring August 31. Mr. Puller was formering August 31. Mr. Puller was formering a member of the City Council, and ence represented the city of Richmond in the General Assembly. Years ago the was the law partner of Attorney

House Aids Good Roads Movement

Washington, April 30.—The House to-day aided the national good ronds movement by passing, 632 to 33, a provision in the post-office appropriation bill which would grant a subsidy to all highways used in the rural free delivery mail service. These ronds would be divided in three classes, with subsidies of $25, $20 and $15 a mile. It is estimated that the cost the first year would be $16,000,000 to $18,000,000.

The amendment offered by Representative Shackleford, of Missouri, was a compromise of twenty-nine good ronds bills introduced during the present session of Congress. Democrats and Republicans from rural communities combined to defent the arguments of a similar condition of representatives from the cities.

Prescribes Membership of Council and Provides Salaries.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Norfolk, Va., April 30.—The City Council to-hight sustained the veto of Mayor Riddick as to the ordinance prescribing the membership of the Council and providing salaries for the Councilmen. The political leaders were active all day, but lacked about ten votes of having enough to pass the measure over the veto.

The budget appropriation bill was adopted, notwithstanding the veto. A new ordinance adopted by both branches prescribed exactly the Sana number of Councilmen, two from each of the five wards, but climinates the salary feature.
